- Encourage student participation
- Share values of a Christian nature
- Provide opportunities to reflect upon readings from sacred texts or other writings

Tutor Time Collective Worship

It is the responsibility of the learning tutor to ensure an act of collective worship takes place during tutor time. Students should be encouraged to prepare the Act of Worship with advice and guidance when needed from the learning tutor. This will take various forms:

- Traditional prayers of the church will be said during tutor time and will be changed according to the liturgical year
- A short reflection will take place daily in tutor classrooms planned and prepared by the chaplaincy team and liturgy coordinator
- A booklet of short prayers is also available on line with thoughts for the day and reflections
- Each tutor group will participate in a Chapel Act of worship each half term led by the Chaplaincy Team
- All resources are on the O drive under Acts of Worship

The liturgy co-ordinator and the chaplaincy team are happy to provide support and advice on the preparation of acts of worship. The choice of readings, themes, prayers and music should contribute to creating an experience of prayer and reflection.

House Leaders and House Assemblies

House Leaders are responsible for leading the house in an act of worship on a regular basis. Assemblies should be well planned, meaningful and include traditional prayers of the Church. Technical equipment is available on request.

Each House group will gather for an Act of Worship organised by the House Leader in the Assembly Hall as follows:

Monday:	Newman
Tuesday:	Manning
Wednesday:	Allen
Thursday:	Wiseman
Friday:	Vaughan

Students will gather in the Presentation Centre on their respective days at 10.40am
Twice a year each tutor group will lead a House assembly.

Acts of Worship throughout the day

At 8.45am there will be a prayer said in all classes before the lesson begins. This should be the mission statement or the morning offering.

At 10.40am during tutor time and assembly traditional prayers of the Church will be said. These will rotate throughout the year.

At 3.05pm a prayer should be said before the students are dismissed. This should be the Glory Be
